

Assembly Bill No. 1263

CHAPTER 361

An act to amend Section 602 of the Penal Code, relating to trespass.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 2003. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 2003.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1263, Benoit. Trespass.

Existing law makes it unlawful for persons to engage in certain acts of trespass. In particular, existing law makes it unlawful for a person to knowingly enter upon any airport operations area, as defined, if the area has been posted with notices restricting access, as provided. Existing law also makes it a crime to possess specified weapons, replica weapons, parts of weapons, and ammunition within a sterile area of an airport, as defined, to which access is controlled by screening of persons and property, except as provided.

This bill would make it a trespass to enter or reenter the sterile area of an airport after intentionally avoiding submission to the screening and inspection of one's person and accessible property in accordance with the procedures being applied to control access to that area. That trespass would be punishable as a misdemeanor with imprisonment of not more than 6 months in a county jail unless a violation is responsible for the evacuation of an airport terminal, is responsible in any part for delays or cancellations of scheduled flights, and the sterile area is posted with reasonable notice that the trespass may be prosecuted, in which case it would be punishable as a misdemeanor with not more than 1 year imprisonment in a county jail.

By creating a new crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

This bill would incorporate additional changes in Section 602 of the Penal Code proposed by AB 936, SB 993, or both, contingent upon the prior enactment of one or both of those bills.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 602 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

For purposes of this subdivision, occupancy at a hotel or motel for a continuous period of 30 days or less shall, in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, or other written evidence of a periodic tenancy of indefinite duration, be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.
